KNOW ALL PERSONS BY THESE PRESENTS:

The Brays Village Patio Homes Maintenance Fund, Inc. ("Association") is charged with administering and enforcing those certain covenants, conditions and restrictions contained in the recorded Declarations for the various sections of the community (referred to collectively as "Declarations"); and

Chapter 202 of the Texas Property Code was amended effective June 17, 2011, to add Section 202.018 ("Section 202.018") thereto dealing with the regulation of display of certain religious items; and

The Board of Directors of the Association ("Board") has determined that in connection with maintaining the aesthetics and architectural harmony of the community, and to provide clear and definitive guidance regarding the display of certain religious items therein, it is appropriate for the Association to adopt guidelines regarding the display of certain religious items within the community.

The Board has duly adopted the following Guidelines for Display of Certain Religious Items within the community.

1. A property owner or resident may display or attach one or more religious items to each or any entry to their dwelling. Such items may include any thing related to any faith that is motivated by the resident's sincere religious belief or tradition.
2. Approval from the Architectural Control Committee is not required for displaying religious items in compliance with these guidelines.

Conditions and Restrictions on Display of Items:

3. Individually or in combination with each other, the items at any entry may not exceed 25 square inches total in size.
4. The items may only be displayed on or attached to the entry door or frame and may not extend beyond the outside edge of the door frame.
5. To the extent allowed by the Texas state constitution and the United States constitution, any such displayed or affixed religious items may not:
 - a. threaten public health or safety; or
 - b. violate any law; or
 - c. contain language, graphics or any display that is patently offensive to a passerby of ordinary sensibilities.
6. Any alteration to the color or material of the entry door or door frame must be approved by the Architectural Control Committee.
7. As provided by Section 202.018, the Association may remove any items displayed in violation of these guidelines.

Miscellaneous

8. Upon request by the property owner, Architectural Control Committee shall have the authority to allow a religious statute or other religious item in a landscape bed on the lot for decorative purposes.
9. These guidelines shall not prohibit or apply to temporary seasonal decorations related to religious holidays.

The guidelines are effective upon recordation in the Public Records of Harris County, and supersede any guidelines for certain religious items which may have previously been in effect. Except as affected by Section 202.018 and/or by these guidelines, all other provisions contained in the Declarations or any other dedicatory instruments of the Association shall remain in full force and effect.

I, the undersigned, being the Secretary of Brays Village Patio Homes Maintenance Fund, Inc., hereby certify that the foregoing resolution was adopted by at least a majority of the Association's Board of Directors. Approved and adopted by the Board on this _____ day of _____ 2013.
